Flying into spending and saving

Often, we need to save money to get the things we want in life. That's why it can be a good idea to keep track of how much money you spend and how much you're saving so that you don't spend too much.

Savings tracker

Keep track of the spending and saving targets your plane lands on with this sheet. Record the amount you reach in the shaded box. Add or subtract that amount from your previous total and write the amount in the unshaded box.

	Example	Flight record
